for me

Pat, I don't know how to put it in words, but you know how much I love you. Every since that first night I can't bear to be without you. We've been going together for more than a year now and it seems like the longer we go together the more I love you. We've been through hard times and goods times together and all the hard times has done is to bring us closer together. You the most wonderful and perfect person there is. It seems like whenever I've felt down or disappointed you always there to give me strength. I remember everything we've done together. Sometimes I just sit and think of all the good times and things we've been through together, and it makes me feel so good to know we'll keep having those good times. Pat, we've got our whole ~~lives~~ lives ahead of us and I know we'll be together forever and ever. Nothing could ever come between us, because together we are strong. We were made to be together and we will be together until eternity. Pat, I love you

Bill.

Arlene (dark)

Pat

Tell what kind

Pat Emery

Pat, I don't know how to put it. You know how much I love you. Every day I can't bear to be without you. We've been together for more than a year now and it's only getting better. The more we go together the more I love you. Hard times and good times together times has done is to bring us closer. The most wonderful and perfect person the world over. Whenever I've felt down or disappointed, you always manage to give me strength. I remember us being together. Sometimes I just sit and think about all the good times and things we've been through. It makes me feel so good to know that we'll always be together. Those good times. Pat, we've got a long road ahead of us and I know we'll face many challenges. Nothing could ever come between us. Together we are strong. We were born to be together and we will be together until the end.

Thank * HEAVEN* for The Greatest Blessing Cascade ever had !!!

HEY SENIORS THERE'S OUR MAN

WE KEEP THE BEAR TRAP FOREVER

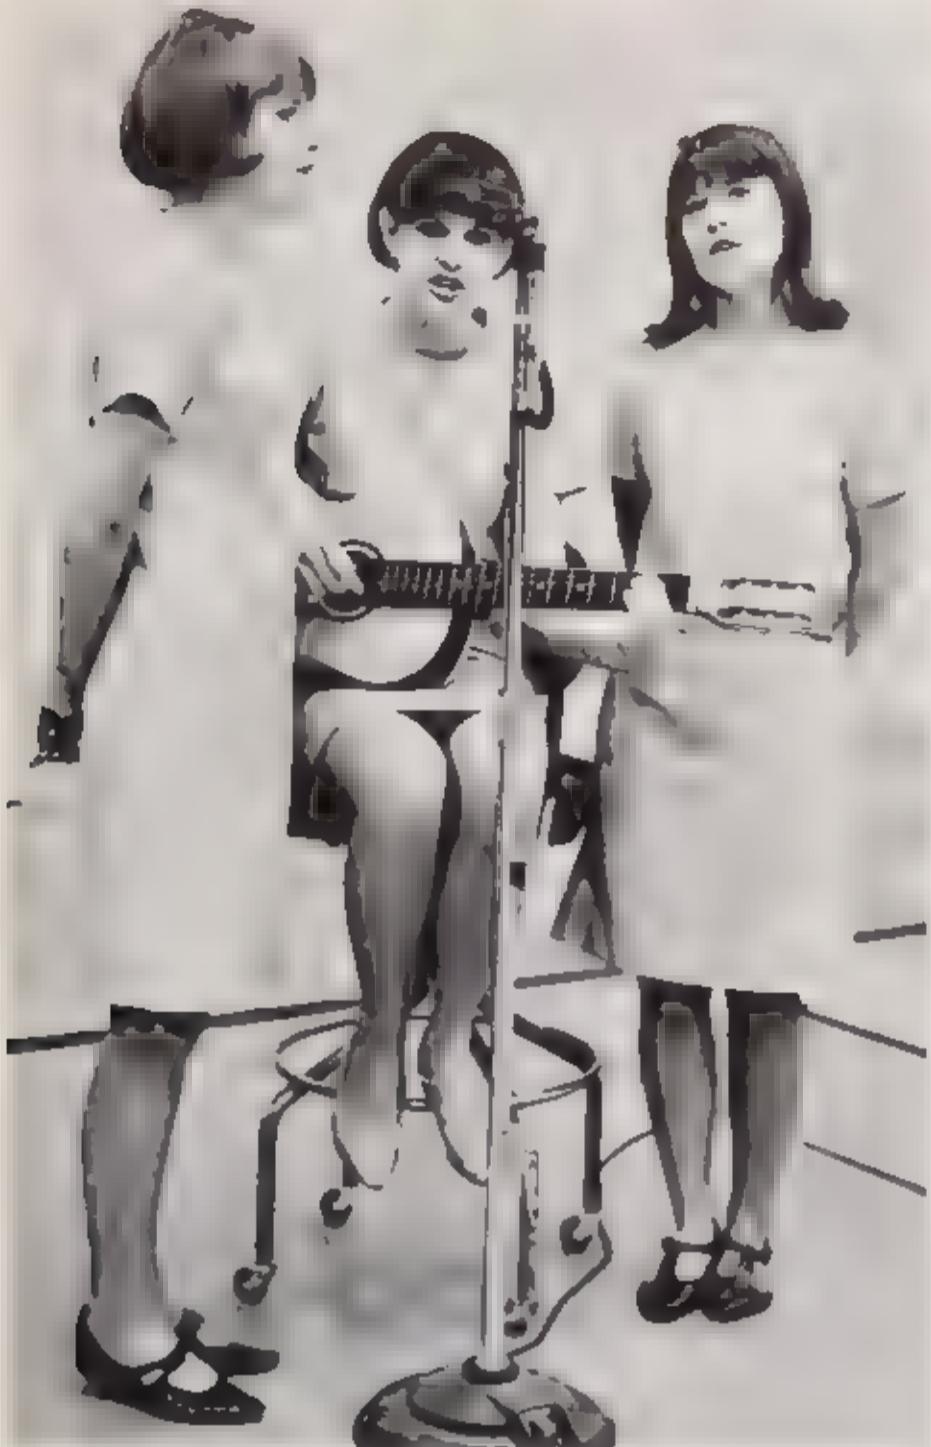

Above left: Jennifer reveals undiscovered talent.
Above: Dickie and Tom expel sounds that delight the ear. Left: Nothing great was ever achieved without unity. Below: Students lead ASB into its second childhood.

First Talent Show

Above: Barb, Peggy, and Bonnie harmonize sweetly. Above right: Alison gives the show a bit of English charm Right: Midori dances daintily to a Japanese tune and legend

With emcees Phyllis Diller (Linda Veho in disguise) and Wayne Wise, Cascade held its first talent show. Featured in the show were Midori Shigeta dancing a Japanese interpretation; Marilyn and Margaret Racher and Nancy Petreson doing a pantomime in a toy shop; Barb and Bonnie Dede and Peggy McNeil, who sang "Dream"; Kerry Canfield, who played a piano concerto; Margo Brewer and Debbie Marstrom performing a Tahitian dance; Rick Stanton singing "Walk On"; Shirley Boyd, who sang "Double Oh Soul"; Jennifer Fowler, singing "As Long as He Needs Me"; Tom Davis and Dick Ludwig imitating the Smothers Brothers; Alison Davies, who gave an oral interpretation of the poem 'Albert and the Lion'; and Sue Forrest and Tom Fosket, who sang "It's Almost Like Being in Love."

Cruisin'

Seniors gave an October night of colored lights and streamers to Cascade students with their dance, "Cruisin'." Students enjoyed an evening of each other's company as the Cowley Affair played the sounds of the city.

Serving as committee chairmen under general chairmen Jim Maynard and Terre Bragg were Terri Cochran, Marcie Schultz, Kathy Haines, Carol Schmitz, Scott Newton, Terri Thielen, Anita Naffz, Ron Thompson, and Nancy McKean

Respectful to my elders
True to the best that is in me
That I may become a fine and worthy

"Take Me to Your President"

Above "You don't understand. On Mars, some people tend the sheep, while others look after the rockets. I happen to be a rocket tender."

Students were transformed into unforgettable characters as the house lights dimmed and the make-believe world of Cascade's fall play began. Caught in the life of A 1, Pat Duffy portrayed a young Englishman striving to achieve world peace. Supported by an excellent cast, the play captured the audience's imagination as it carried them through the fantasy of Take Me to Your President.

Thespians

Each member of Thespians earned his title by making enough points in the different aspects of drama to become a member of this honorary group. The group as a whole achieved a quality of theatrical presentation that made the world of drama come alive for Cascade students.

Drama Club

Masked in their roles of make believe, drama students presented "Night Must Fall" and "Take Me To Your President" to the Everett community. Many students were involved both on stage and behind the scenes, contributing to the success of both productions. The members worked with spirit and energy under the guidance of Mrs. Dysart and set new goals of achievement for their drama club and the school as a whole.

Students Strive for

The scholars of Cascade are rewarded with membership in the National Honor Society, an active group at Cascade. To become a member, a student must have an accumulative grade point of 3.2. The Honor Society worked to promote interest in scholarship by having speakers, a banquet, an assembly, and various activities. Cascade is proud to have such a large group of Honor Society members.

The Vista staff of 1967 worked hard to produce a refreshing annual with their theme depicting "A Day and Night at Cascade." The staff consisted of twenty-eight members, who met every sixth period under the instruction of Mrs Johnson, Vista advisor. Many hours were spent cropping pictures, drawing lay-outs, composing and typing copy, and selling ads. Both the memories and experiences of this past year are represented here in the pages of this book which the Vista staff of 1966-67 proudly presents to you, the students and faculty of Cascade.

Busy all year around, the Stehekin staff kept the school informed of the various events of the school year. Whether describing news or entertainment features, the '66-67' staff worked for the pleasure of Stehekin.

motion of Cascade's school motto "School of Pride." New features added this year were Gary's Closet and Cub Footnotes. The students on the staff learned many aspects of putting out a paper as well as the fun of belonging to such a class.

New Worlds to Cascade

*Guido
and Midori*

Everytime I go over my personal diary I'll remember how much importance Cascade High School had in the success of my American year. At the first Pep Assembly of the year, you Bruins seemed so strange — perhaps I was strange. But a little by little I learned how cool CHS is. The thing that I appreciated very much is the frank friendliness of all the buddies I met. I wish I could thank each one of you personally, but I will say a big THANK YOU to the whole student body and faculty and I assure you that I'll always be PROUD of groovy CHS in Italy."

You're Bugato

On the very first day at Cascade, the Orientation Day, I remember everyone warmly welcomed me with a big smile and a friendly 'Hi! Football games, dances, and dates were all new to me and often times excited me like an electric shock. Nervously I took the first step of everything and now it is one of my funniest but great memories. I felt I was a Bruin and with such nice friends I never could be homesick. There are lots of things left to say, but I want to mention most is that Bruins are No. 1 always and THANK YOU VERY MUCH for a wonderful year. I hope someday you can come to visit me. Until we meet again "Sayonara" to everyone."

"Fantasy In Frost"

Cascade's cafetorium was transformed into a magical world of "Fantasy in Frost" as the Boys' and Girls' Club combined ideas and talent to produce one of the most enjoyable dances of the year. Eric & The Shomen provided music to dance the night away, as Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus strolled through the crowd passing out Christmas gift souvenirs.

Break it up you two old coys.

The music department presented their fourth annual operetta on the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th of May. This year's presentation was Rogers and Hammerstein's OKLAHOMA based on Lynn Riggs's Green Grow the Lilacs. The story comes out of the period of American history when the farmers were moving west. It is the love story of Curly, a cowboy, and Laurie, a farm girl, who are caught in the struggle to unite the cowman and the farmer. They find that the "country's a-changin', got to change with it."

Sadie Hawkins

The sophomores outdid themselves in hay and dog patch decoration to create our Hillbilly Haven. Plenty of grub, Marryin' Sam, unlimited foot-stomping and an obstacle course added to the fun. No other activity quite matched the fun of our Sadie Hawkins dance.

I do?

"Al De La"

On April 29, Cascade's most memorable evening unfolded into an exciting visit to Venice. The mood was set with a new idea in bands, 'The Stagemen.' The theme "Al de la," an Italian song title, was carried out beautifully in the Italian decorations and programs. Nothing could have been prettier than the lovely parade of new formals against the beautiful Venice backgrounds. The General Chairmen were: Roxanne Blair, Pam Danner, Jerry Loomer, and Jim Iles. The other chairmen were as follows: decorations, Lois Harstead and James Thomas; showcase, Jeanette Halverson and Cindy Gronski; picture scene, Dawn Whitehead and Nancy Jackson; refreshments, Kay Dorn and Carol Davis; programs and tickets, Sharon Helaas and Lynda Woods; entertainment, Marrie Anderson and Janice Pilskog; coat room, Jill Hatley and Terrie Davis; clean-up, Linda Olson and Chris Johnson; publicity, Sheryl Olson; fund raising, Donna Berry; and chaperones, Darlene Peterson and Dianne Anderson. Advisor, Mr. Gray.

Now I go into my wheely!

What now my love?

Cross Country

The 1966 Cross Country team regained the city championship, defeating Everett in every meet. The highlight of the year came when Cascade won a fourway meet over Bellingham, Sehome and Everett. The success of the team came as the result of the hard work of each member. The nucleus of the team was comprised of Juniors, who should make a fine showing in the Western Conference under the able leadership of the newly elected captain, Joe Armistage.

As new coach this year Marvin Gray instilled a spirit of co-operation in the team that led to a successful season.

The 1966-67 wrestling season has been in many ways a great success. The team has won several conference matches, defeating Sehome, Blanchet, and their cross city rival, Everett. Through the efforts of Coach Dire and the new Coach, Mr. Marsh, the wrestlers exhibited pride and enthusiasm in their team.

This year's Cascade basketball team was able to accomplish what no other Bruin team had done, by winning their first Western Conference Championship. To do this the Bruins had to compile a record of twelve wins against two defeats. Every win was a vital one because the conference title wasn't won until the last game of the season against Meadowdale. The Bruins were able to defeat every team in the conference, with two wins over Seattle Prep, Blanchet, Edmonds, Meadowdale, and Mountlake Terrace. Cascade split games with Everett and Bellingham.

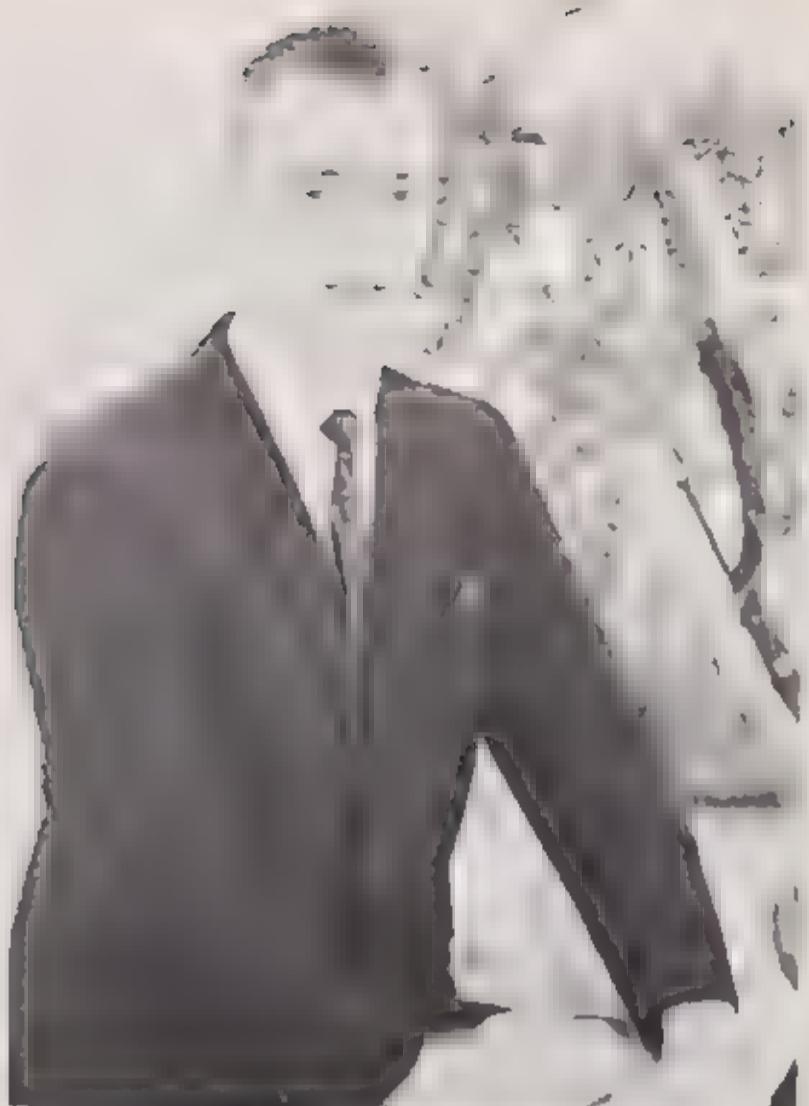

A season's record of thirteen wins and six losses were also the best record by a Bruin team. Twelve players were lettered by Coach Reg Scodeller, which included only four seniors. With such a great crop of lettermen returning from a champion ship team, Coach Scodeller and the Cascade Bruins are definitely headed for an exciting and prosperous 1967-1968 basketball season.

Under the coaching of Mr. Schaler and Miss Dinnetz, the boys' gymnastics team went to the State meet at Washington State University. There, the team placed 6th out of some 30 schools. On the 18th of March, Nancy Vincent, Janice Pilscog, Gini Denson, Jackie Allen, and Pat Whitson went to the State Tournament in Auburn. Nancy placed 1st all around in the junior division, 1st on the bars, 2nd on the beam, 3rd in free exercise, and 3rd in vaulting. Pat Whitson earned honors by placing 2nd in the junior division on the parallel bars, and Gini Denson earned 3rd place in the junior division for the parallel bars.

Rocky Shore and Mark Nunamaker,
Inspirational Award Winners

Although the Swim Team didn't acquire many wins during the season, it sent five boys to the State meet at the University of Washington. They were Dave Hodges, Mike Hollowell, Jim Durkin, Mark Nunamaker, and Bob Lloyd. Dave Hodges was the most outstanding by taking sixth in the State in diving. The Inspirational winners for the 1966-67 Swim Team were Seniors Mark Nunamaker and Rocky Shore. Jim Durkin was presented next year's captain's award by 1966-67 captain Bob Lloyd.

The 1967 baseball team received many supporters this year. Backed by their dedicated coach, Mr Krause, and captain Dan Hutsell, as well as three hard working managers and a proud student body, the team showed action that is worthy of praise. Although the boys' roster clearly shows more losses than wins, they claimed a victory in fair play and good sportsmanship. Some of the schools played include: Lake Washington, Everett, Bellingham, Anacortes, Meadowdale, Seattle Prep, Blanchett, Wenatchee, and Marysville.

Both boys and girls track teams shared spirit in their meets of 1967. This year brought an equal measure of success and failure to both teams.

Under the leadership of Coach Birrell Dinnetz, the second season of girls track actively participated in several local meets as well as competing against veteran Seattle teams.

The boys team continued to display the enthusiasm of former years, bringing their coaches Mr. Dre and Mr. Gray a season to be proud of.

“YOUR JOB”

Wherever you're working — in office or shop,
And however far you may be from the top,
And though you may think you're just treading the mill,
Don't ever belittle the job that you fill;

For, however little your job may appear,
You're just as important as some little gear
That meshes with others in some big machine,
That helps it keep going — though never is seen.

They could do without you — we'll have to admit
But business keeps on when the big fellows quit!
And always remember, my lad, if you can,
The job's more important — oh yes — than the man!

So if it's your hope to stay off the shelf,
Think more of your job than you do of yourself.
The job is important — don't think it is not
So try hard to give it the best that you've got!

And don't ever think you're of little account
Remember you're part of the total amount
If they didn't need you, you wouldn't be there
So always, my lad keep your chin in the air.

A digger of ditches, mechanic, or clerk
Think well of your company, yourself and your work.
